

Call for Nominations to the General Practice Registrars Australia Ltd (GPRA) Board of Directors 2007/2008

GENERAL PRACTICE
REGISTRARS
AUSTRALIA LIMITED

THE FUTURE OF GENERAL PRACTICE

Background

The GPRA represents the future of General Practice and is the peak, national representative organisation for GP registrars in the Australian GP Training Program environment. The Company is established with the object of recognising and supporting the needs of General Practice Registrars in Australia.

The GPRA consists of an Advisory Council, comprising of all the Registrar Liaison Officers of each Regional Training Provider and other National Representatives. The Advisory Council establishes the broad policy of the Company and gives strategic planning advice to the GPRA Board. The GPRA Board consists of 8 Directors which are elected each year at the GPRA AGM; the Chair and Vice Chair shall be elected from the 8 successful members. The term of appointment for all these positions is 1 year.

A GPRA board director is bound to act in the best interests of the Company, in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 and the GPRA Constitution. The roles and responsibilities of Directors can be found at the ASIC website: www.asic.gov.au and the AICD website at www.companymen.com.au. We encourage nominees to visit this website and gain an understanding of these roles.

A copy of the GPRA constitution is available within our Member section of GPRA's website at www.gpra.org.au. If you do not have your member number, please email us at admin@gpra.org.au.

Who can nominate?
