"The GPRRA Board of Directors for 2008-2009 would like to thank the outgoing board directors for their invaluable contributions that have positioned GPRRA as an important stakeholder within GP training", said Dr Guest.

"I look forward to a successful year for GPRRA, with strong support from management and a diverse and enthusiastic Board. We will focus strongly on communications over the next 12 months – both internal and external. This will help us to create new synergies as we focus on supporting Registrars and position GPRRA as an organisation committed to promoting and enhancing General Practice at all levels.", she added.

"GPRRA has grown rapidly in the last 12 months and the new Board will have its work cut out for them to help us sustain and leverage this growth for the benefit of our members and the wider sector. I am extremely pleased and confident that the new Board will not only meet these organisational challenges but also help reinvigorate the sector as we look at new and innovative solutions to GP workforce and Registrar satisfaction issues.", said Mr Amit Vohra, GPRRA CEO.
